Plans Laid for Mass-Meeting at City Auditorium on April 29.

TO AID MONUMENT FUND

Many Committees Take Part in Movement to Honor Jackson's Memory.

Mrs. Thomas J. Jackson, widow of the noted Confederate leader, has been invited to be the guest of honor at the "Stonewall" Jackson mass-meeting which will be held on April 29 at the City Auditorium under the auspices of the local chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The object of the meeting is to create a greater interest in the monument movement, and in preparing the public for the proper observance of the Stonewall Jackson Monument Day, which, by proclamation of the Governor, has been set for May 1.

D., president of the Stonewall Jackson Memorial Corporation, and the only surviving member of General Jackson's staff. The meeting will begin at 8:30 o'clock, and all members of Confederate organizations and the general public are invited to be present.

On Jackson day, they Confederate flags will be sold throughout the State to raise funds for the monument. The plan will be the same as that followed on Tag Day or Bell Day. The committee on arrangements has requested all merchants to decorate their stores, and citizens their homes on that day.

Last Wednesday A Memorable Day

As such it will always be remembered by every member of the firm of Sydnor and Hundley. For it was on this day that old and new friends alike joined in the celebration of the firms' twenty-fifth birthday.

We of the firm and store family take this opportunity of sincerely thanking all of those patrons and friends that extended to us their congratulations and pleasant greetings during the past week, and honored with their presence.

The last score and five years have taught us many things: "Firstly," as the Rotarians say, "RICHMOND IS A GOOD TOWN." It's a good town to work in, it's a good town to work for.

This quarter of a century has taught us much of Richmond's own peculiar needs. By learning them, we have been enabled day by day to serve Richmond homes with increasing understanding and greater efficiency.

Truly there is no other business so closely affiliated with private home life than that of the furniture artist who studies the individual needs of individual homes and buys for them accordingly. In a nutshell, that's what our great business is—a collection of experts in each department, studying conditions and variations in line and color. Advising here, remodeling there, supplying the necessary information as to styles and novelties, and in every way assisting you to secure the most discriminating choice in YOUR OWN CASE.

Respectfully,

consideration. It is understood that the funds in hand will not justify the erection at this time of more than one line grating plant, through it is the expectation that others will be erected from time to time in different sections of the State. Convicts will be employed as far as possible in the operation of the plants.

FAILED TO REPORT

Rothenberg Fined in Police Court for Violating City Ordinance. David S. Rothenberg, a furniture dealer of 118 North Eleventh Street, was fined $10 and costs yesterday morning in Police Court for failing to report to the police certain articles of second-hand furniture he had bought. In violation of the city ordinance, Council for Rothenberg contended that he was a merchant and not a second-hand dealer. However, the defendant admitted that he bought second-hand furniture and resold it. This is the first case under this ordinance which has been brought into court. The police recently announced that they would prosecute all second-hand dealers who failed to live up to the law.

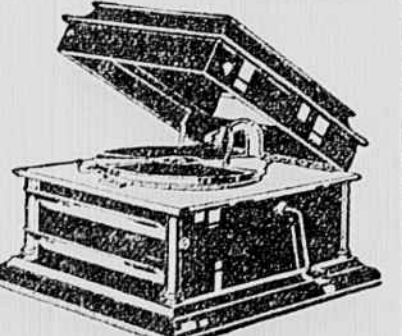

PAYS PRIMARY FEE

Congressman William A. Jones in Race For Re-election. Congressman William A. Jones, of the First District, yesterday sent a check to State Treasurer Harman for $375 in payment of his primary fee. Mr. Jones has no opposition yet, and it is probable that the field will remain clear for him.

GOOD SUGGESTION TO RICHMOND PEOPLE

It is surprising the amount of old, foul matter the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-Lika, drains from the system. This remedy became famous by curing appendicitis and acts on BOTH the upper and lower bowel so thoroughly that ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. We are glad to glad we are Richmond agents for Adler-Lika. The T. A. Miller Company, druggists, 519 East Broad Street.—Advertisement.
